

Palermo Christian Church

Hosts

at Blueberry Mountain,
Weld, Maine

Palermo Christian Church

Hosts

at Blueberry Mountain,
Weld, Maine

PCC Teen Winter Camp at Blueberry Mountain Camp

The following is all the information you need to know for your teen (Grades 7-12) to have a successful winter camp experience!

Blueberry Mountain Camp Information: The camp is located 2 miles up the mountain in Weld, Maine. It is located in a gorgeous setting with the looks of a ski lodge. The main building has five dormitory rooms, chapel, recreation room, and dining hall. Blueberry has three ½ mile sledding hills. Check out the website (EXTREME SLEDDING): www.blueberrymountain.org

Skiing, Snowboarding, or Snow Tubing Options: Students will have the opportunity to choose one activity at Black Mountain in Rumford, Maine.

Departure: Fri, Feb 24, 10:30AM (Sears, Augusta) Return: Sun, Feb 26, 1:30PM (Sears, Augusta) Shopping Plaza

Payments: Total Cost: $87.00 or $97.00 (if renting skis or snowboard). The $50.00 or $60.00 (if renting skis or snowboard) first payment is due Feb 1st. The final payment of $37 is due Feb 19th. Make all checks out to Palermo Christian Church and give Phil Hubbard the payment (also make sure you put Winter Camp on memo line). Extra money is needed for snacks and lunch stop on Friday.

Forms: All Forms are due Feb 1st: Permission Slip, Winter Camp Options, Snow Tubing Liability, & Stone Wall Ski Shop

Work Scholarships & Financial Assistance: This year we will not be able to offer any scholarships. Finances are tight and we won't be able to offer help this year.

On the right is the list of things your teen needs to bring. Under no circumstances should your teen bring the following items – not even for the ride. These are camp rules.

- Personal music devices (e.g., walkman, Discman, ipod's)
- TV's, PC's, or electronic games
- Alcohol, tobacco (any form), or illegal drugs
- Weapons of any kind

The stuff you need to bring:
All of this
(Except items with *)
Needs to fit in one bag!

- Sleeping bag *
- Pillow *
- Towel(s)
- Personal items
- Warm clothes
- Spending money
- Flashlight (not necessary, but convenient)
- Ice skates & hockey sticks

I believe I have covered it all! If you have any problems or questions, don't hesitate to call me! If you need to get a hold of me in case of an emergency while we are at the winter camp, you can reach me through my cell phone: (207) 446-8224.

Sincerely,
PASTOR PHIL

PCC Teen Winter Camp at Blueberry Mountain Camp

The following is all the information you need to know for your teen (Grades 7-12) to have a successful winter camp experience!

Blueberry Mountain Camp Information: The camp is located 2 miles up the mountain in Weld, Maine. It is located in a gorgeous setting with the looks of a ski lodge. The main building has five dormitory rooms, chapel, recreation room, and dining hall. Blueberry has three ½ mile sledding hills. Check out the website (EXTREME SLEDDING): www.blueberrymountain.org

Skiing, Snowboarding, or Snow Tubing Options: Students will have the opportunity to choose one activity at Black Mountain in Rumford, Maine.

Departure: Fri, Feb 24, 10:30AM (Sears, Augusta) Return: Sun, Feb 26, 1:30PM (Sears, Augusta) Shopping Plaza

Payments: Total Cost: $87.00 or $97.00 (if renting skis or snowboard). The $50.00 or $60.00 (if renting skis or snowboard) first payment is due Feb 1st. The final payment of $37 is due Feb 19th. Make all checks out to Palermo Christian Church and give Phil Hubbard the payment (also make sure you put Winter Camp on memo line). Extra money is needed for snacks and lunch stop on Friday.

Forms: All Forms are due Feb 1st: Permission Slip, Winter Camp Options, Snow Tubing Liability, & Stone Wall Ski Shop

Work Scholarships & Financial Assistance: This year we will not be able to offer any scholarships. Finances are tight and we won't be able to offer help this year.

On the right is the list of things your teen needs to bring. Under no circumstances should your teen bring the following items – not even for the ride. These are camp rules.

- Personal music devices (e.g., walkman, Discman, ipod's)
- TV's, PC's, or electronic games
- Alcohol, tobacco (any form), or illegal drugs
- Weapons of any kind

The stuff you need to bring:
All of this
(Except items with *)
Needs to fit in one bag!

- Sleeping bag *
- Pillow *
- Towel(s)
- Personal items
- Warm clothes
- Spending money
- Flashlight (not necessary, but convenient)
- Ice skates & hockey sticks

I believe I have covered it all! If you have any problems or questions, don't hesitate to call me! If you need to get a hold of me in case of an emergency while we are at the winter camp, you can reach me through my cell phone: (207) 446-8224.

Sincerely,
PASTOR PHIL